Press Release

Artist Sarah Jane Brown announces a new exhibition of paintings at Etcetera, St Davids, Pembrokeshire

Contemporary Welsh landscape painter Sarah Jane Brown is delighted to announce that she has launched a new exhibition of paintings at Etcetera, a contemporary gallery, gift and framing boutique in St Davids, Pembrokeshire. Originally opened in November 2013 with a strong ethos for supporting local artisans, Etcetera has recently undergone extensive refurbishment and expansion, and now offers a purpose-built gallery space.

The new gallery space at Etcetera enables visitors to St Davids to contemplate and experience for themselves the work of Sarah Jane Brown. Original paintings are available for sale, together with cards and limited edition prints. Visitors can also view further paintings in the extended exhibition space at The St Davids Cross Hotel.

The breathtaking coastal views of the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park on her studio doorstep, together with the internal landscapes of her own thoughts, provide rich sources of inspiration for Sarah Jane's deeply expressive and explorative paintings. Whilst introspectively engaging with personal experience, Sarah Jane's paintings explore powerful emotional themes that go beyond simple visual representation. They also warmly invite the viewer's individual interpretation and personal response.

Sarah Jane's paintings can also be seen at other venues, including Off the Wall Gallery in Cardiff. For the latest news please visit www.sjbart.com.
